Incident report: power company exchange webshell

Sahara Power Company's Exchange server MAIL-SPC-01 had not been patched for ProxyShell (CVE-2021-34473). Attackers dropped an ASPX web shell in the OWA directory, ran Mimikatz to dump credentials from LSASS, and created a scheduled task to keep access. They were found by threat hunter Majed Al-Anazi before any data left the network.